

Raymond Hall Courtyard

When one of the Sisters sculpted this bust of Mother Mary McAuley, who founded the order of Sisters of Mercy, and gifted the bronze to the University, it was decided to place the sculpture in this courtyard. Design of the installation was placed in my hands. The only difficulty in implementing the design was the drain that was found to run exactly under the pedestal. I had to work out a footing that would straddle the drain without disturbing function.

